The Las Vegas lodge of the Elks will hold its regular meeting this evening at which several candidates will be initiated. Other important business, pertaining to the club house, will be brought up for consideration.

Two patients from Santa Fe county have been received by Superintendent George Ward at the asylum recently. Ludencio Sandoval was received Saturday night and Mrs. Marcelino Montoya was brought in Sunday.

Miss Annie T. Aitkin, who formerly was a teacher at the Normal University, is seriously ill in her home in Hull, Ia. Miss Aitkin left here about a year ago after a residence of several years. She has a large number of friends in Las Vegas who will regret to learn of her misfortune.

The city council will meet tomorrow evening in regular session. The council held no meeting during August because of the absence from the city of some of the aldermen and the difficulty in getting a quorum. Matters of importance and reports of the various city officers will be considered at tomorrow night's meeting.

Enumeration of the delinquent tax payers for 1910 has been completed by Robert L. M. Ross, deputy county treasurer and collector. The list has been placed in the hands of District Attorney Charles W. G. Ward for collection. Mr. Ward expects to use every effort to collect each item on the list. Those who know themselves to be delinquent should pay promptly and avoid the embarrassment attendant to the collection of the taxes by legal means.

We cater especially to the children's candy trade—and make an extra effort to be supplied with the purest and best of candies for this purpose.

Dr. Cook's Truth About the North Pole in two reels, and 25 stereopticon slides, tonight only at the Bridge Street Theater.

Monday, September 23, has been set as the date upon which William B. Stapp, clerk of the court for the Fourth judicial district will draw from the jury wheel the names of the men who will be required to serve on the grand and petit juries at the fall term of the United States district court. Any citizens who desire to witness the drawing are privileged to do so.

Word has been received here of the death of Luona Waterman, daughter of G. E. Waterman, the West side photographer Saturday evening at Colorado Springs. The Waterman family came to Las Vegas several years ago from their home in Ypsilanti, Mich., in the hope of benefiting their daughter's health. They lived here until two months ago at which time they went to Colorado Springs for a change of climate. The funeral was held at Colorado Springs this afternoon. The watermans expect to return to Las Vegas.

While in Clayton last week attending the fall term of the district court for Union county, O. A. Larrazolo of Las Vegas, who recently pledged his faith to the republican party, was given an ovation by the republicans. A big political meeting was held at which Mr. Larrazolo was invited to be present. Several speeches were made in which Mr. Larrazolo was welcomed into the republican party. In conclusion Mr. Larrazolo made an eloquent speech. The republicans of Union county are actively preparing to put up a strong ticket in the coming election, the first to be held in the new state.

The material for the construction of the bridge at the Arroyo Pecos, crossing the road to Los Alamos, has arrived and work will commence within the next few days. County Engineer George Morrison says the construction of the bridge at San Jose is nearing completion, and after that the work on the other bridge will be pushed. As soon as the material for the structure at the Hot Springs arrives it will be begun and completed as rapidly as thorough construction will allow. With the completion of these structure the roads in the county will be improved greatly and tourists and teamsters with heavy loads will be free to go as they please without having to worry about getting stuck in the Pecos or Gallinas.

Contractor M. M. Sundt is at work putting in a new floor in the show windows of M. Greenberger, the clothier. The new floor is to be on a level with the bottom of the windows and to be of the best oak flooring, highly polished. The interiors of the show windows are being repainted and repaired putting them in fine shape for the display of fall goods.

T. G. Robb, of the Phoenix ranch, near Watrous, called at the Optic office this morning, and left a box of the most beautiful apples we have seen this year. Mr. Robb has produced several thousand pounds of this choice fruit and is a firm believer in the fact that this section of New Mexico can raise as fine fruit as any other place in the world.

Friends of Mrs. Harry Morrison, wife of Postmaster Morrison of Cherryvale, N. M., have received word of her death on Thursday last at the Morrison home in the mesa town. Mrs. Morrison left a family of five children, three girls, a boy and an infant born a short time before her death. The Morrison family has resided on the mesa for the past two years. They came here from their former home in Marcelline, Mo., to take up a homestead. The burial took place on Friday afternoon.

Word has been received from the Wheeler family telling of the bad luck they had on their trip to Denver and of their arrival in the city. Owing to the heavy roads near Springs they were forced to give up their overland trip to Colorado, ship their touring car by freight and continue the journey by rail. The Wheelers are nicely situated in Denver, having secured a home on Gaylord street, within a block of City park, which is in one of the best residence sections of the city. Since they arrived they have had the good fortune to meet several of their old friends from Las Vegas, who are residing in Denver. This has added much to the pleasure of their new home.

OH, YES--We Have Linoleum

One lady thought we didn't carry Linoleum. On the contrary our linoleum room shows a mighty complete stock from the very lowest prices to the finest grade made.

Good linoleum is made of cork and oil. It wears well and makes a noiseless cushion for walking.

Cover your kitchen floor with good linoleum and notice how much less tired you are in the evening.
